

A warm welcome at the Johannesburg Hotel St. Georg

In order to give everyone a good time, we ask you to consider the following things:

You are responsible for the behaviour of your four-legged friend throughout the hotel. Please make sure that other guests do not feel at risk.

Dogs are allowed to stay under supervision in the hotel lobby and on the sun terrace. Access to the wellness area, hotel garden and restaurant is not allowed

Dogs must not be left unattended during your stay at the hotel (except in your hotel room).

Please attach the provided door tag "Please do not disturb" or "I am alone in the room" to your room door to alert the staff to the presence of your dog!

Room cleaning is only possible if you are present or if you inform us in advance at the reception that the dog is not in the room

Dogs should be kept on a leash in the hotel.

Please put a blanket underneath if your dog is allowed on the couch or bed.

No food is included in the pet fee.

We thank you and for your understanding and wish you a pleasant stay!
